Your Instructor:

Frances Whitford is a Metis artisan originally from Anzac, Alberta. Most of her pieces are made of moose hide, various types of furs and beadwork as well as fishscale floral art, using white fish scales harvested with my home community every summer. She learned most of her craft from her grandmother Eva Mckenzie, and grandfather Lawrence Whitford and being raised by them. She had the privilege of a life surrounded in the Metis culture.

A SPOTLIGHT ON KIRK

Kirk Centre Ethnocultural
Community Engagement
2024-2026.

Kirk Centre is the grateful recipient of a grant from the Government of Alberta aimed at weaving intercultural connections and celebrating diversity.

In 2024 we hosted an ethnocultural Free Community Concert, four diverse cooking classes, and built our sacred firepit.

Stay tuned in 2025 for more event, activities and update at Kirk Centre!
